

Description of the relationship when applying for family immigration with fiancé

In order to process an application for family immigration with fiancé, we often need supplementary information about the relationship. On this form, you who live in Norway can describe your and your fiancé's shared history. In many cases, the information provided on this form make it unnecessary for us to interview you. Use a separate sheet if necessary.

1. Yours and your fiancé's name
2. When and where did you meet each other the first time?
3. How often have you met since the first time?
4. When did you decide to get engaged?
5. Do you have any children together, or do you have children from previous relationships?
6. Have you or your spouse/partner been married before? If applicable, which periods?
7. Describe the wedding plans. When and where will you enter into marriage, who will conduct the wedding ceremony, are you going to have a celebration etc.
8. In this section you can fill in other information that may be useful for us in the proceedings.

