The immigration authorities will use the information in this application form to process the permit for which you are applying. This information may also be used in relation to later applications and applications from family members. The information will be registered in the computer system for immigrant and refugee cases (DUF).

Your information may be passed on to other relevant authorities in order to check and obtain more details of the information you have given. Where necessary, information about you will also be collected from other Norwegian and foreign authorities, including the police. This will not be carried out where consideration for your safety so determines. If you are granted a permit, information on this will be entered in the National Population Register.

You can contact UDI for more information about our use of your details, your right of inspection in this regard and how you can ask for the details to be changed. You will find more information about the treatment of your personal details at www.udi.no.

I hereby confirm that the information given in this application is correct and complete. I am aware that, under the General Civil Penal Code, act no. 10 of 22 May 1902, section 166 and the Immigration Act, act no. 64 of 24 June 1988, section 47, first paragraph, sub-paragraph b, it is a punishable offence to give materially incorrect or clearly misleading information, including omission of information of material significance. In addition to criminal charges, breach of the Immigration Act or the Norwegian Penal Code may lead to rejection or expulsion and registration in the Schengen Information System (SIS). Any permit granted based on incorrect or incomplete information may be withdrawn.

Information on accompanying documents – see also www.udi.no

All documents must be supplied in their original form or as a copy certified by a public authority or other body with such competence. The documents must be translated into English or Norwegian by an approved translator. Where the application is lacking any information or documents, these must be obtained. If the application is submitted for processing without satisfactory documentation, it may be rejected on these grounds. Please note that you may be required to supply documentation in addition to that stated below.

The requirement for documentation can vary from country to country. If you are applying from abroad and need more information, you can contact the Norwegian embassy/consulate in the country from which you are applying. You will find a list of Norwegian embassies at www.norway.info.

All applicants must provide the following:

- Two identical and recent passport photos
- A copy of the personal details page in your travel document. Alternatively, a copy of your identity card can be included.
- For renewal, any previously issued EEA card must be enclosed.
- If you (the applicant) are under 18, enclose documentation from a public authority showing who has parental responsibility for you (e.g. birth certificate). If parental responsibility is shared and you will be living in the country with one of your parents, you must enclose a declaration from the other parent consenting to you living in Norway.

You must also include information specifically linked to the grounds for your permit application:

The purpose of the EEA permit is to work in Norway

- Form "Proof of employment for EEA/EFTA citizens" (from each employer if you have more than one).
- For a renewal, employees from Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, Slovakia and Slovenia must include wage slips for the past three months as well as a tax certificate and a statement of pay and deductions.

The purpose of the EEA permit is to run a business in Norway

- Description of the business and documentation of permits required from other authorities
- Information on how you are aiming to run an enduring business

The purpose of the EEA permit is to provide services in Norway

- Documentation of the work in the form of a contract or agreement between the client in Norway and the foreign business that employs you or that you run
- Documentation showing that the foreign business is registered, and where its head office is based (first-time application only)
- Documentation that you will be employed by the foreign business (which has the contract to provide the services) for the period of service provision in question, including a copy of your employment contract. It must be clearly stated that you are employed in the country where the business has its head office.
- Documentation showing where you are paid from
- Documentation of the duration of the contract to provide services

The purpose of the EEA permit is to receive services in Norway

- Description and documentation of the services, plus a description of their duration and what will be paid for them.

The purpose of the EEA permit is residence in Norway financed by own means or permanent periodic benefits

- Recent confirmation from your home country of a pension/social security or similar, and documentation of the duration of this benefit, or documentation of your own means (e.g. bank statements for the past three months and confirmation that the funds are available to you)
- Documentation of health insurance, for example the European Health Insurance Card
- Documentation of other income or other circumstances that may be of significance (e.g. free board and lodging, etc.)

The purpose of the EEA permit is to study in Norway

- Documentation of admission to an approved educational institution
- Documentation of health insurance, for example the European Health Insurance Card (unless you are covered by Norwegian National Insurance)
- Declaration that subsistence is ensured

The purpose of the EEA permit is family immigration (linked to a person covered by EEA regulations)

- Certificate confirming your family connection (first-time application only)
- If there is a requirement for the principal person to have health insurance, this requirement also applies to you.
- If the principal person has a permit for work in Norway, documentation of housing is required.
- There is a basic requirement of subsistence for family immigration. This subsistence must be documented. However, the following applicants do not have to document this: Spouse of either an employee, self-employed person, service provider or service recipient.

Other reason (continued residence) for EEA permit

- For those with an occupational disability: Enclose documentation of occupational accident/illness or pension
- Documentation that you are or have been involuntarily unemployed
- If you have paid work in another EEA country, but are resident in Norway: Document your work, pay and housing.
- Document how long you have lived in Norway and any interruptions in your stay.
