Notification of criminal offences

Who has to fill in the form?

This form is for people who have registered an application for a residence permit or citizenship online (Application Portal), and who have committed criminal offences. Due to protection of privacy considerations, you cannot register this information online. If you have not committed any criminal offences, you should not fill in this form.

You are obliged to enter all serious and minor criminal offences

The form applies to all types of serious and minor criminal offences. If you do not provide us with this information, it may have consequences for your residence permit in Norway.

Criminal offences can affect your application

If you have committed any criminal offences, this may constitute grounds for refusing you access to Norway or for expelling you from Norway. It could also result in you having to wait longer before your application for Norwegian citizenship can be granted. If you are currently charged with a criminal offence, the UDI may choose not to process your application until the case has been decided.

Where should the form be submitted?

If you are applying from Norway, you must submit the form to the police in Norway. If you are applying from abroad, you must submit the form to your nearest Norwegian foreign service mission.
