

Self-declaration which states that you have not received financial assistance from NAV (økonomisk sosialhjelp)

You must fill out this form if

- you are going to apply for a permanent residence permit, and
- you have had an income of at least NOK 300 000 before tax during the last 12 months

If you had an income of less than NOK 300 000, you cannot use this form. Instead you must hand in a confirmation from your local Nav office where it is written whether or not you have received social security benefits during the past 12 months.

Your personal details

First name	Family name
-------------------	--------------------

Signature

- I declare that I have not received social financial assistance from the Norwegian Labour and Welfare Organisation (Nav) during the past 12 months.
- I know that it is a punishable offence to give incorrect information in connection with an application for permanent residence permit.
- I know that I can lose my permanent residence permit if I give incorrect information.

Place and date	Signature
-----------------------	------------------