

Questions about the relationship between the spouses in family immigration cases

You who apply to be allowed to live in Norway have to answer these questions. The person you are applying for family immigration with in Norway cannot answer them for you.

If you need more space to answer one or more of the questions, you can use an additional paper. Remember to mark the additional paper clearly with your name and date of birth.

Personal data about you who are applying for family immigration

First name	Middle name
Family name (surname)	Date of birth (dd/mm/yyyy)
Citizenship

Personal data about the person you are applying for family immigration with

First name	Middle name
Family name (surname)	National ID-number, D-number or DUF-number

Questions about the relationship between you and your spouse

It is important that you answer these questions as accurately as possible. The UDI will look at your answers when we process your application. You must answer all the questions, and sign on the last page.

1. How is the relationship between you and your spouse?

2. When, where and how did you meet?

3. Have you spent time together since you met?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, write down when and where you have spent time together

4. Have you lived together?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, write down, where, when, and how long you have lived together

5. Were you related before you married?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, explain in what way you were related before you married

6. What or which languages do you speak together?

--

7. Who proposes, and how was the proposal carried out?

--

8. Was the marriage arranged?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, explain who arranged the marriage

--

9. Were you both present at the same place when you married?

Yes  No

--

10. Did anyone pay a dowry?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, explain what the dowry was and who paid it

11. Did you celebrate the wedding?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, explain where you held the party and when it was 12. How and how often are you in contact with each other?

--

13. Have you or your spouse been married previously?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, explain who you were married to in the fields below
If you need more space, you can write on a separate piece of paper and attach it

First name	Family name (surname)	Age	Place of birth	Residence

14. Do you have children together?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, fill out information about them in the fields below
If you need more space, you can write on a separate piece of paper and attach it

First name	Family name (surname)	Age	Place of birth	Residence

15. Are you expecting a child together?

Yes  No

16. Do you or your spouse have any children from previous relationships?

Yes  No

If you answered “yes”, fill out information about the children in the fields below
If you need more space, you can write on a separate piece of paper and attach it

First name	Family name (surname)	Age	Place of birth	Residence

The signature of you who are applying for family immigration

- I confirm that all my answers in this form are true
- I know it is a punishable offence to give materially incorrect or clearly misleading information in connection with an application for family immigration
- I know that the UDI will revoke my residence permit if I give incorrect information

Place and date	Signature
-----------------------	------------------